RESPONSIBILITIES

In the case of an absence or tardy, it is required that students come in to make up missed time during studio hours. Project and daily activity points will be deducted if it is not made up.

Students who are struggling to keep up with the class are highly encouraged to come into the art room to work outside of class during open studio hours.

Open studio hours are also a great time for questions or to discuss grades! Parents, by appointment, please!

Students must turn in projects on the assigned due date. Students who are graded, assignments and projects may be resubmitted with improvements for more points!

NO LATE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED!

"Students will be given a free late-turn-in exception to the late work policy for a 10% point deduction. After that, late work will result in NO CREDIT for that assignment or project."

It is expected that each student keep their work area, supplies and storage area clean and organized. Maintaining a clean work environment is part of the project craftsmanship grade and points.
